Class Cancelled Period	Make-It-Happen and Student Activities present a Blues Band. This is a class cancelled period (12-1:30) and faculty are encouraged to combine this activity with some component of their classes to encourage students to attend.
Budget Requests	Peter said that budget requests forms went out last week and are due in his office on March 14 th . Requests are to be turned into supervisors in time for them to get them to Peter by March 14 th .
New Tennis Team	Student representative, Conard Russell, said that a men's tennis team has been organized and their first match is at VA State on February 17. There are eight students on the team and John Hayes coaches the team.
No Student Suggestions	There were no suggestions from the Student Suggestion Box.
Relay-for-Life Food & Bake Sale	Janice Phillips told the group about the Christanna Cruisers Relay-for Life Teams' Food Sale on Valentine's Day. Hot dogs, barbeques, and baked goods will be sold from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to raise funds for the Cancer Society.
Bookstore	Wayne Talbert said that book orders for Summer are due in the Bookstore by March 14 th . The Bookstore is staying open on Mondays and Wednesdays until 6:30 p.m. to be more available to evening students.
Cardboard Recycling	Judy Shepherd said the recycling of cardboard is going well. Student volunteers are transporting the cardboard to the Convenience Center.
Library Security System	Earnestine Lewis said that they are about half through putting RFID tags (that work with the newly installed security system) on books and AV materials.
Used Books Free To Good Home	The Library is weeding out some very old and unused books. They invite you to look at the "free giveaways" in the Library and help yourself.
Library Art Displays	There is currently an art display in the Library featuring artist, Ryan Higginbotham, a Longwood University student. The display cases in front of the Library have a postal stamp collection featuring African Americans.
Library Research Assistance	Faculty are encouraged to take their students to the library if they have a research project. If faculty let the Library know specific topics before their visit, the Library Staff will be glad to pull books and other items together.
Student Book Club	Students are encouraged to join the Student Book Club. Stop by the Library and see Marika Peterson or Robin Soyars for information.
Jazz and Jambalaya	Al Roberts reminds us of the Jazz and Jambalaya Festival on April 4 th .
New CWW Facility	The new center in Emporia should be finished in March. Network Services is ordering telephones and computers getting ready to install them in the new CWW facilities. Classes will not be moved until Summer.

Admissions and Financial Aid

Brent announced that the on-line chat room is active five days a week for Financial Aid/Admissions/Student Development. All three areas take turns covering the chat room and are answering lots of student questions on-line.

Enrollment

Enrollment is 2297 FTES college wide. This is up about 5-1/2% from last year this time.

Need for More Student
Gathering Areas

Ways to expand student gathering areas were discussed. It was discussed that if students had more places to gather and visit, they may not congregate at doorways as badly. This topic will be visited again.

Next Meeting

The next meeting of Campus Council will be Monday, March 10th at 3 p.m.
